DRUGS ACT

PART ONE PRELIMINARY

CHAPTER ONE INTRODUCTION AND OBJECTS

Introduction
and Title

1. (a) This Act makes provision for the prevention of the use, peddling and trafficking of drugs; and provides for measures to motivate drug dependent persons to treatment and rehabilitation programmes with a view to reducing or eliminating their dependency on drugs and to facilitate their reintegration into the community as responsible citizens; stipulates offences and punishments relating to the misuse of drugs; and matters related thereto.
- (b) This Act shall be cited as the “Drugs Act”.

Objects of the Act

2. The main object of this Act is to achieve the following:
 - (a) to endeavour to reduce the level of drug dependency of drug dependent persons;
 - (b) to identify those who are in the early stages of drug dependency and to assist them in obtaining measures which will enable them to overcome their dependency on drugs;
 - (c) to establish a mechanism for the rehabilitation of drug dependent persons, believing that drug dependent persons are not just criminals but those in need of rehabilitation as they have, through the use of drugs, developed a psychological or physical dependence upon the effect of those drugs or a desire or need to continue to take those drugs;
 - (d) To prevent peddlers from dealing in drugs to sustain their drug dependency, and to reduce the level of criminal activity associated with their drug dependency;
 - (e) To prevent trafficking of drugs by identifying drug traffickers, and to hinder the drug trafficking trade by obstructing the tools of their trade and by enforcing measures that directly target drug traffickers;

- (f) To establish a specialist court to hear criminal cases of drug dependent persons, and subject such persons to mandatory treatment and rehabilitation programmes to reduce or eliminate their dependency on drugs and thus increasing their chances of reintegration into the community as responsible citizens;
- (g) To invest law enforcement agencies with special powers to reduce the number of drug dependent persons and to prevent trafficking of drugs;
- (h) To stipulate offences and penalties relating to the use, peddling and trafficking of drugs.

CHAPTER SIX

TREATMENT CENTRES

Establishment of treatment
centres

- 47. (a) The National Drug Agency shall, within 18 (eighteen) months from the coming into force of this Act, establish and commence operation of the following treatment centres:
- (1) A detoxification centre;
 - (2) A drug treatment and rehabilitation centre;
 - (3) A drug treatment and rehabilitation centre specialised for children;
 - (4) A drug treatment and rehabilitation centre specialised for women;
 - (5) A halfway house;
 - (6) A drug offender remand centre.
- (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-section (a) of this Section, this Act does not prevent the National Drug Agency from establishing and operating, in accordance with this Act and the Regulations made thereunder, detoxification centres, drug treatment and rehabilitation centres, drug treatment and rehabilitation centres specialised for women and children, halfway houses, and drug offender remand centres in such quantities necessary for the treatment of drug dependent persons.
- (c) In addition to establishing the treatment centres that are required to be established and operated under sub-section (a) of this Section, the Nation Drug Agency may, subject to conditions stipulated in the Regulations made under this Act, grant permission to private parties to establish and operate such treatment centres in the Maldives.

Particulars of treatment
centres

- 48. (a) A detoxification centre referred to in Section 47(a)(1) of this Act means a medically supervised residential facility providing treatment to drug dependent persons to physically rid from their bodies and senses, toxins accumulated by drug use and to eliminate their drug dependency.

operate
treatment
centres

- 49. The treatment centres referred to in sub-sections (a) and (c) of Section 47, shall be operated in accordance with a licence issued by the National Drug Agency under the Regulations made by the Agency under this Act.

Regulations relating to treatment centres

50. The National Drug Agency shall, within 3 (three) months of its creation, publish rules and procedures relating to the establishment and operation of treatment centres referred to in Section 47, the standards to be maintained in such centres, other standards to be used in the operation of such centres and guidelines for issuing operating licences to such centres.

Regulations relating to programmes conducted in treatment centres

51. (a) The programmes conducted in treatment centres established under Section 47 shall be devised and conducted in accordance with the standards stipulated in the Regulations made by the National Drug Agency. The Regulations, while providing for the provision of counselling, shall state such counselling to be Islamic behavioural counselling.

(b) The Regulations made by the National Drug Agency shall provide for the qualifications that are required to be fulfilled by different categories and professions of staff working in treatment centres and shall provide for the ethical and professional standards that must be maintained by them during the provision of their services.

Responsibility for managing treatment centres

52. (a) All treatment centres established under Section 47 shall be managed by a superintendent appointed by the operator of the centre, who shall be responsible for all matters relating to the centre.

(b) The owner of a treatment shall not be exempt from liability for any act committed in a centre in contravention of this or any other Act.

(c) The National Drug Agency shall monitor how the treatment centres established under Section 47 are being operated. And shall, no less than twice a year, publish a report as regards the same.

Review Committees

53. (a) The superintendent of each treatment centre shall, in accordance with the regulations made by the National Drug Agency under this Act, appoint a Review Committee for each treatment centre to review the cases of every person undergoing treatment programmes or rehabilitation programmes.

- (b) The chairperson of the Review Committee appointed under sub-section (b) shall satisfy the criteria stipulated in the regulations made by the National Drug Agency under this Act.

PART III TRIAL PROCESS

CHAPTER SEVEN FILING AND TRANSFER OF CASES

- | | | |
|---|------------|--|
| Prosecution | 54. | <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) Where the Prosecutor General, having given due regard to the findings of an investigation conducted on an allegation of a criminal offence by a person, decides to prosecute the alleged offender, the Prosecutor General shall submit such case to the Drug Court if in his opinion the person is an eligible person.(b) The cases of persons who are charged with a criminal offence other than those persons who are eligible persons, shall be submitted to the Criminal Court or any other court that has jurisdiction to hear such cases. |
| Right to prosecute and right not to prosecute | 55. | <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) This Act does not prevent the case of a person who is charged with an offence under Section 36 to be submitted to the Criminal Court or any other court that has jurisdiction to hear such cases, even if that person is an eligible person whose case is pending before the Drug Court.(b) Where an eligible person, whose case is proceeding in the Drug Court, has to be prosecuted for a criminal offence other than an offence under Section 36 and that the Drug Court has no jurisdiction to adjudicate upon, the Prosecutor General has the discretion to decide not to prosecute him for that offence and to proceed only with the case in the Drug court. |
| Revocation of suit | 56. | <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) Where the case of an eligible person has to be submitted to the Drug court while he has a criminal case pending in a | court other than the drug court, the Prosecutor General has the discretion to revoke the case in that court and to prosecute him only for the case in the Drug court.

- (b) Where an eligible person whose case is proceeding in the Drug Court, has a criminal case that does not fall within the jurisdiction of the Drug Court pending in another court at the time his case was submitted to the Drug Court, the Prosecutor General has the discretion to revoke the suit against him in that court and to proceed only with the case in the Drug court.

Multiple charges

- 57. (a) Where an eligible person whose case is proceeding in the Drug Court, has to be prosecuted for more than one criminal offence that do not fall within the jurisdiction of the Drug Court, the Prosecutor General has the discretion to decide whether to prosecute him for only one of those offences while not prosecuting him for the rest, or whether to not prosecute him for any of those offences while proceeding only with the case in the Drug court.

- (b) Where an eligible person whose case is proceeding in the Drug Court, is prosecuted for more than one criminal offence that do not fall within the jurisdiction of the Drug Court, the Prosecutor General has the discretion to decide whether to proceed with only one of those case while withdrawing the rest, or whether to not proceed with any of those cases while proceeding only with the case in the Drug court.

Additional offences falling within the jurisdiction of the Drug Court

- 58. (a) Where an eligible person who has a case pending before the Drug Court, has to be prosecuted for an additional offence that falls within the jurisdiction of the Drug Court, the Prosecutor General has the discretion to decide not to prosecute him for that additional offence and to proceed with the case currently pending before the Drug court.

- (b) Where a person undergoing a treatment programme prescribed under a Rehabilitation Order made under Section 67 of this Act has to be prosecuted for a criminal offence other than an offence under Section 36 of this Act, the Prosecutor General has the discretion to not prosecute him for that offence provided he is complying with all the requirements of the programme in accordance with the Rehabilitation Order issued against him. And the Prosecutor General shall have the discretion to prosecute him for that offence if he fails to complete the programme in accordance with the Rehabilitation Order.

- (c) Where an eligible person against whom a final judgment has been made under Section 84 of this Act, has to be prosecuted for a criminal offence other than an offence under Section 36 of this Act which he committed prior to his case being submitted to the Drug Court, the Prosecutor General has the discretion not to prosecute him for that offence.

Factors to be considered in deciding to prosecute or not prosecute

59. Where the Prosecutor General has to make a decision under Section 55 (b), or 56 (a) or (b), or 57 (a) or (b), or 58 (a) or (b), he shall do so having given regard to the following:

- (a) a drug dependence assessment done by a person authorised to conduct an indicative assessment shows, considering the circumstances under which the accused committed the offence, that it is probable that he committed the offence as a result of his drug dependency or that there is reason to believe that he was a drug dependent person at the time he committed the offence; or
- (b) the circumstances make it more equitable and just to subject the accused to a treatment programme prescribed by the Drug court than to prosecute him for that offence.

Suspension of case by Drug Court

60. (a) Where any of the circumstances referred to in Section 65(b) or (c) occurs while the case of an eligible person is pending before the Drug Court, the Drug Court shall declare that it cannot further proceed with the case and shall transfer the case to a court that has jurisdiction to hear such cases.

- (b) Where an eligible person is convicted of any of the offences referred to in Section 36 while his case is pending before the Drug Court, the Drug Court shall cease to adjudicate upon the case and shall cause his sentence to be commenced immediately.

- (a) that he is an eligible person; and
 - (b) It appears to the court that the person is a drug dependent person; and
 - (c) the person is willing to be subjected to an indicative assessment under Section 62 (b) of this Act; and
 - (d) The person has agreed to participate and complete a prescribed treatment programme.

Determination
by Drug Court on whether to proceed with a case

- 62.
- (a) Where the Drug Court deems that a person whose case was submitted to the Court is not an eligible person, or if the person does not consent to being subjected to a prescribed treatment programme, the Drug Court shall declare that it cannot further proceed with the case and shall transfer the case to a court that has jurisdiction to hear such cases.
 - (b) If the person appears to be an eligible person and if the court is able to ascertain that he has agreed to participate and complete a prescribed treatment programme, the drug court shall order the National Drug Agency to conduct via an authorized person, an indicative assessment for drug dependency and/or for suitability for rehabilitation.
 - (c) The court shall, while making an order under subsection (b) to refer a person for an indicative assessment, state in that order, the date on which the report shall be submitted to the Court.
 - (d) If the court makes an order under subsection (b) to refer a person for an indicative assessment, the court must do either of the following:

- (1) remand the person in custody in a drug offender remand centre to appear before the drug court on a specified date; or
 - (2) release the person on bail or on such other conditions determined by the court, to appear before the drug court on a specified date.
- (e) Where the court makes an order under subsection (b) to refer a person for an indicative assessment and where the court remands the person in custody in a drug offender remand centre under subsection (d)(1) of this Section, the Court shall order the person in charge to:
- (1) To ensure that he appears before the drug court on a specified date; and
 - (2) To ensure the person meets with the appropriate health professionals authorised by the national drug agency to conduct an indicative assessment.
- (f) Where the court makes an order under subsection (b) to refer a person for an indicative assessment and where the court releases the person on bail or on such other conditions determined by the court under subsection (d)(2) of this Section, the Court shall order the person to:
- (g) (1) appear before the drug court on a specified date; and
 - (h) (2) attend at the times and places decided by the national drug agency to meet health professionals authorised by the national drug agency to conduct an indicative assessment.

Preparation and submission of indicative assessment report

- 63.
- (a) The National Drug Agency shall in accordance with Section 62 (b) prepare and submit to the drug court, an indicative assessment report within the time specified by the court.
 - (b) The indicative assessment report referred to in this Section shall contain the following:

- (1) the level of drug dependency of the accused;
 - (2) an assessment of the person's suitability for rehabilitation;
 - (3) if the person is suitable, the type of treatment that is required and/or a proposed rehabilitation program.
- (c) When an indicative assessment report is submitted to the Court, the court shall give a copy of the report to the prosecuting authority and the accused.
 - (d) The drug court must ensure that the prosecuting authority and the accused have sufficient time before the proceedings to consider and respond to the report.
 - (e) The National Drug Agency shall conduct the indicative assessment report via health professionals who are licensed by the Agency to do so.
 - (f) The criteria of persons authorized to conduct indicative assessment reports and the conditions for issuing licences to such persons shall be stipulated in the regulations to be made under this Act.

Suitability for treatment

- 64.
- (a) Even if a person is prosecuted in the drug Court, he shall not be suitable to participate in a prescribed treatment programme unless he is capable of participating and completing the treatment programme proposed in the indicative assessment report under Section 62 (b) of this Act.
 - (b) The following persons shall not be suitable for a prescribed treatment programme:
 - (1) A person who is shown in the indicative assessment report to be a person who suffers from a mental condition, illness or disorder that could prevent or restrict the person's active participation in a prescribed treatment programme.
 - (2) A person who is shown in the indicative assessment report to be a person who suffers from a mental sentence of the Court if the offender successfully completes the treatment programme prescribed by the Court. And shall revert if the offender fails to complete the programme or if he does not give his consent to participate in the programme.

Rehabilitation order 67. Where the Drug Court passes an initial sentence against the accused under Section 65(a) and makes a suspension order under Section 66(a), it shall, based on the indicative assessment report issued under section 62(b), make a Rehabilitation Order against that person.

The contents of a Rehabilitation Order 68. A Rehabilitation Order made under Section 67 shall contain the following:

- (a) The details of the sentence imposed on the offender;
- (b) How the execution of the initial sentence has been suspended;
- (c) The conditions imposed in the order;
- (d) The type and details of the prescribed treatment programme.

Setting aside suspension order 69. (a) Even where the Drug Court has made a Rehabilitation Order against a person under Section 67, the Court may set aside the order suspending the execution of the initial sentence and order the initial sentence to be executed if it appears to the Court that the treatment programme cannot be facilitated in accordance with the Rehabilitation Order.

(b) The order to execute the initial sentence made against a person under sub-section (a) shall remain in effect until the first of the following two events/circumstances occur. And where such an event occurs, the order suspending the execution of the initial sentence reverts, and the Rehabilitation Order will come into effect.

(1) The facilities have been arranged in accordance with the Rehabilitation Order;

(2) 90 (ninety) days have passed since the making of the initial sentence.

- (c) If the facilities cannot be arranged in accordance with the Rehabilitation Order before the expiry of the time period referred to in sub-section (b)(2) above, the authority supervising the offender's custody shall bring him before the Drug Court prior to the expiry of that period.
- (d) Where an offender is brought before the Drug Court under sub-section (c) the court shall decide on executing the initial sentence made against him, suspending the order executing the initial sentence and executing the Rehabilitation Order.

Conditions of a
Rehabilitation
Order

70. A Rehabilitation Order must be made subject to the following conditions:

- (a) To not commit another offence for the duration of the order;
- (b) To obey orders issued by treatment centres;
- (c) To regularly appear before the court on the dates ordered by the court;
- (d) To not depart from an island where a treatment centre is located except after obtaining a court order;
- (e) To inform the treatment centre he is registered under, of any change of address or place of work within 3 (three) months of such change.

Additional
conditions of a Rehabilitation
Order

71. Based on prevailing circumstances, a Rehabilitation Order may contain the following conditions.

- (a) Community service for a prescribed period or a prescribed number of hours;
- (b) To participate in another activity that will facilitate him to be reintegrated into society or into the rehabilitation system.

Details of

72. Where a Rehabilitation Order is made, it shall provide in as much

treatment
programme

detail as possible, information on the prescribed treatment programme, including the following:

- (a) The degree of supervision to which the offender is subject;
- (b) the frequency with which the offender must undergo testing for drugs;
- (c) Consent of persons whom the indicative assessment requires to undergo vocational education programmes or vocational training programmes.
- (d) Consent to be subject to medical, psychiatric or psychological treatment;
- (e) That the Drug Court may commit the offender to a prison for up to 21 (twenty one) days at a time, if in the opinion of the Court, such action is necessary to facilitate:
 - (1) Detoxification of the offender or assessment of the offender's participation in the treatment programme; or
 - (2) There is no alternative but to commit him to a prison until a suitable facility is made available.

Explanation of Rehabilitation
Order

73. Before making a Rehabilitation Order under Section 67 of this Act, the Drug Court must ensure that all reasonable steps are taken to explain to the offender the following:

- (a) That the Rehabilitation Order contains:
 - (1) the initial sentence imposed by the Court, and any other sentences that are temporarily suspended, if any;
 - (2) the core conditions of the order;
 - (3) details of any other conditions that are prescribed in accordance with this Act;
 - (4) details of the prescribed treatment programme.

- (b) The purpose and effect of the Rehabilitation Order.
 - (c) The consequences that may follow if the offender fails to comply with the Rehabilitation Order.
- When Order comes into effect
- 74. (a) Where a Rehabilitation Order is made under Section 67 of this Act, such order shall come into effect when the offender confirms in writing that he has received written notice of the order.
- (b) When a Rehabilitation Order made against a person under Section 67 of this Act comes into effect, that person shall remain under the jurisdiction of the Drug Court for the duration of the order.
- Suspension of Rehabilitation Order
- 75. If an offender is convicted of an offence referred to in Section 36 of this Act while a Rehabilitation Order is effective against him, the sentence imposed on him for that offence must be executed. And the Rehabilitation Order made against him will be suspended for the duration of the sentence.
- Variation of conditions of Rehabilitation Order
- 76. (a) The Drug Court may, at the request of a person against whom a Rehabilitation Order is effective, or at its own initiative, vary the terms of an existing Rehabilitation Order.
- (b) Where the terms of a Rehabilitation Order is varied under sub-section (a), the reasons for such change shall be provided in writing.
- Conferring of rewards
- 77. The Drug Court may confer the following kinds of rewards on an offender where the court is assured that he has maintained a satisfactory level of compliance with the programme:
- (a) conferral of specified leniencies or privileges;
 - (b) a decrease in the frequency with which the offender must undergo testing for drugs;
 - (c) a decrease in the degree of supervision to which the offender is subject;
 - (d) a change in the nature of the vocational training programmes attended by the offender or a decrease in the total number of hours of community service that the offender is required to complete.

Imposition of sanctions

78. The Drug Court may impose the following kinds of sanctions on an offender where the court is assured that he has failed to comply with the programme:

- (a) Withdrawal of leniencies or privileges conferred on the person;
- (b) A requirement that the offender pay a monetary penalty to the Drug Court;
- (c) An increase in the degree of supervision to which the offender is subject;
- (d) An increase in the frequency of medical, psychiatric or psychological treatment to which the offender is subject;
- (e) An increase in the total number of hours of community service that the offender is required to complete;
- (f) A requirement that the offender be subjected to imprisonment in a prison for up to 15 (fifteen) days.

Limitation of right to appeal

79. Notwithstanding the right to appeal granted under Article 56 of the Constitution, there shall be no right to appeal against the following orders and decisions of the Drug Court, for the reason that a Rehabilitation Order is made with the consent of the offender to be subjected to its terms.

- (a) The initial sentence made under Section 65 of this Act;
- (b) The Rehabilitation Order made under Section 67 of this Act;
- (c) The order setting aside the order to suspend the execution of the initial sentence;
- (d) An order made by the court for the offender to appear before the court on a specified date.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

TERMINATION OF TREATMENT PROGRAMME

- Termination of treatment programme
- 80. (a) The Drug Court may terminate an offender's treatment programme prescribed under a Rehabilitation Order made under Section 67 of this Act under the following circumstances:
- (1) If any of the persons referred to in Section 81 of this Act requests the Drug Court to terminate the programme;
 - (2) If the offender fails to comply with the terms of the Rehabilitation Order;
 - (3) If the offender refuses to consent to a variation of the terms of the Rehabilitation Order;
 - (4) If the offender refuses to consent to comply with the varied terms of the Rehabilitation Order;
 - (5) If the court is of the opinion that continuing the programme will not produce any satisfactory results.
- (b) Where the Drug Court decides to terminate a treatment programme under sub-section (a), it shall inform the offender in writing of the termination and the reasons for such termination.
- Persons who may request the court for termination of a treatment programme
- 81. (a) The following persons may request the Court to terminate the treatment programme prescribed under a Rehabilitation Order under Section 67 of this Act.
- (1) The offender undergoing treatment;
 - (2) National Drug Agency;
 - (3) Treatment centre in which the offender is undergoing treatment.

- (b) If an application to terminate a prescribed treatment programme is made to the Drug Court by the offender, the Court shall give notice of the same to the treatment centre in which the offender is undergoing treatment, the Prosecutor General and the National Drug Agency.
- (c) If an application to terminate a prescribed treatment programme is made to the Drug Court by the treatment centre in which the offender is undergoing treatment, the Court shall give notice of the same to the offender, the Prosecutor General and the National Drug Agency.
- (d) If an application to terminate a prescribed treatment programme is made to the Drug Court by the National Drug Agency, the Court shall give notice of the same to the offender, the Prosecutor General and the treatment centre in which the offender is undergoing treatment.

Termination of Rehabilitation Order upon termination of treatment programme

- 82. (a) Where the Drug Court decides under Section 80 to terminate a treatment programme prescribed under a Rehabilitation Order issued under Section 67 of this Act, the Court shall terminate the Rehabilitation Order made against that person.
- (b) Where the Rehabilitation Order made against a person undergoing a treatment programme is terminated under sub-section (a) of this Section, the Court shall revert the initial sentence made against him under Section 65 (a) and order the execution of that sentence in a correctional facility.

CHAPTER TWELVE

COMPLETION OF TREATMENT PROGRAMME

Completion of treatment programme

- 83. A treatment programme of an offender subject to it under a Rehabilitation Order issued in accordance with Section 67 of this Act shall be deemed concluded when the offender successfully completes all parts of the programme that are required to be completed under the Rehabilitation Order.

Imposition of final sentence

- 84. (a) When a treatment programme is deemed completed in accordance with Section 83 of this Act, the Drug Court shall vacate the Rehabilitation Order made under Section 67 of this Act and shall impose a final sentence on the offender in one of the ways provided for in Section 85 of this Act.

(b) In imposing a final sentence under sub-section (a), the Court shall consider the following:

(1) the opinion of the treatment provider on the extent to which the offender participated in his or her rehabilitation program;

(2) any privileges conferred on the offender during the programme;

(3) any sanctions imposed on the offender during the programme.

(c) Where a final sentence is imposed on an offender under Section 85 of this Act, the initial sentence imposed on him under Section 65 (a) of this Act shall become null and void.

85. (a) The final sentence referred to in Section 84 of this Act may be imposed in any one of the following ways:

(1) By making an order setting aside the initial sentence and releasing the offender unconditionally;

(2) By making an order setting aside the initial sentence and releasing the offender conditionally on such conditions as the Drug Court imposes;

(3) By making an order setting aside the initial sentence, deferring the passing of final sentence and releasing the offender conditionally on such conditions as the Drug Court imposes;

(4) By making an order setting aside the initial sentence, and imposing instead a final sentence, deferring the passing of that sentence and releasing the offender conditionally on such conditions as the Drug Court imposes.

- (b) The nature or duration of a final sentence imposed on an offender shall not be greater than the initial sentence imposed on him.
- (c) If the imposition of the final sentence has been deferred conditionally under sub-section (a)(3), the Court shall impose the final sentence on the offender if he fails to comply with any of the conditions upon which he was released.
- (d) If the execution of the final sentence has been deferred conditionally under sub-section (a)(4), the Court shall execute the final sentence on the offender if he fails to comply with any of the conditions upon which he was released.
- (e) A final sentence imposed on an offender under sub-section (a)(4) shall not be executed as long as the offender complies with the conditions stipulated in that sentence.
- (f) Where a final sentence is imposed on an offender under sub-section (a)(1), the time spent by the offender in the treatment programme shall be deemed to be time spent serving the sentence, and his sentence shall be considered to be executed.
- (g) Where a final sentence is imposed on an offender under sub-section (a)(2), and where the offender complies with the conditions stipulated in that sentence, the time spent by the offender in the treatment programme shall be deemed to be time spent serving the sentence, and his sentence shall be considered to be executed.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO ELIGIBLE CONVICTED OFFENDERS

Offenders
convicted prior

- 86. (a) If offenders convicted of an offence of use of drugs prior to the coming into force of this Act and serving their sentence

to Act coming into force

in prison, wish to participate in a prescribed drug Court programme, they may make an application to the National Drug Agency.

- (b) Where the National Drug Agency receives an application under sub-section (a), the Agency shall submit the application to the Drug Court if the Agency is satisfied that he is an eligible convicted offender under Section 35(d) of this Act.

Drug Court to ascertain certain matters

87. The Drug Court shall, upon receiving an application under Section 86 (a), ascertain the following:

- (a) The applicant is an eligible convicted offender under Section 35(d) of this Act; and
- (b) The Court is satisfied the convicted offender is a drug dependent person; and
- (c) The offender agrees to be subject to an indicative assessment; and
- (d) The offender agrees to participate in and complete a treatment programme prescribed by the Court.

Suspension of execution of sentence of eligible

88. (a) Where the Drug Court is satisfied, upon ascertainment of matters under Section 87 of this Act, that the offender is an eligible convicted offender, the Drug Court shall deem the sentence being served by the offender to be an initial sentence imposed under Section 65(a) of the Act and shall make an order suspending the execution of that sentence. And the Court shall further make a Rehabilitation Order with respect to the offender and shall duly apply the relevant provisions in this Act.

- (b) If an offender determined to be an eligible convicted offender under sub-section (a) has multiple convictions, the Court shall order suspension of the execution of his current sentence as well as his next subsequent sentence. And the Court shall further make a Rehabilitation Order with respect to the offender and shall duly apply the relevant provisions in this Act.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

TREATMENT OF DRUG DEPENDENT PERSONS WHO VOLUNTEER FOR SAME

Treatment of persons who volunteer for same

- 89. (a) A child below the age of 18 (eighteen) who is drug dependent may in accordance with the regulations made by the National Drug Agency and in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter, be admitted for treatment in a treatment centre referred to in Section 47 of this Act where the parent of the child applies to the treatment centre for the child to be treated for his drug dependency.
- (b) A person above the age of 18 (eighteen) who is drug dependent may in accordance with the regulations made by the National Drug Agency and in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter, be admitted for treatment in a treatment centre referred to in Section 47 of this Act where he applies to the treatment centre to be provided with treatment in respect of his drug dependency.

Conditions of treatment for volunteers

- 90. A person who voluntarily applies to be treated in a treatment centre referred to in Section 47 or a child below the age of 18 (eighteen) whose parent applies for the same, shall be admitted to such a treatment centre upon the National Drug Agency ascertaining that the following conditions are satisfied, and upon the Agency issuing a directive to the treatment centre:
- (a) A document issued by a state authority vested with the legal power to investigate criminal matters stating that there are no allegations of criminal offences against the person, and a document issued by a court of criminal jurisdiction stating that the person does not have a conviction for a criminal offence; and
- (b) A document issued by a person authorized to conduct indicative assessments stating that there is a likelihood that he may be a danger to himself or to others if he is not admitted to a treatment centre for treatment; and
- (c) A document issued by the treatment centre to which the person has applied to be admitted to, stating that he has been subject to an indicative assessment made by a person authorized to carry out the same in accordance with the regulations made by the national drug Agency and that a treatment has been prescribed for him based on that assessment report; and

- (d) A declaration made by the person applying for treatment, or in the case of a child below 18 (eighteen) years of age the parent, consenting to be subject to treatment; and
- (e) A document issued by the treatment centre stating that the facilities required for his treatment are available in the centre; and
- (f) That there is no Rehabilitation Order suspended under Section 69 of this Act for reasons that facilities are not available at the treatment centre.

Procedure for treatment of volunteers

91. The National Drug Agency shall make and publish regulations relating to the procedures for the treatment of drug dependent persons and children below 18 (eighteen) years of age at treatment centres referred to in Section 47 of this Act who volunteer for the same in accordance with Section 89 of this Act. And the Agency shall not admit a person into such treatment programme under this Chapter except in accordance with those regulations.

Immunity from prosecution

92. A person is not liable to prosecution for any offence comprising the use of drugs as a result of any admission made for the purpose of seeking admittance to treatment in a treatment centre under Section 89 of this Act. However, if there is evidence of facts giving rise to a criminal offence other than an offence comprising the use of drugs, this Act does not prevent him from being prosecuted for that offence.

Prosecution for a Section 36 offence

93. This Act does not prevent a person who is undergoing treatment in accordance with Section 89 of this Act from being prosecuted for an offence referred to in Section 36 of this Act in the Criminal Court or other court that has jurisdiction to hear such cases.

Prosecution for additional offences committed by persons who volunteer for treatment

94. (a) Where a person undergoing treatment in accordance with Section 89 of this Act has to be prosecuted for a criminal offence other than an offence referred to in Section 36, the Prosecutor General has the discretion to stay prosecution for that offence as long as he is completing his treatment in accordance with the prescribed treatment.

- (b) Where the person referred to in sub-section (a) fails to complete his treatment in accordance with the prescribed treatment plan, the Prosecutor General has the discretion to proceed with the prosecution that has been stayed under sub-section (a).
- (c) Where the person referred to in sub-section (a) completes his treatment in accordance with the prescribed treatment plan, the Prosecutor General has the discretion to discontinue the prosecution that has been stayed under sub-section (a).

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

GENERAL RULES RELATING TO TREATMENT

Monitoring of
treatment programmes by the Court

95. The Drug Court shall monitor the execution of treatment programmes that are conducted in accordance with Rehabilitation Orders made under Section 67 of this Act.

Transfer of persons between treatment
centres

96. (a) Any person who is resident at a treatment centre may, at terms agreed upon by the Superintendent of the Centre, and with the leave of the National Drug Agency, be transferred to another treatment centre. Where such transfer is made, it shall be so recorded at both centres. And the drug court shall be informed of such transfer. The National Drug Agency shall provide the guidelines and procedures for transfer of persons from one centre to another in the Regulations to be made under this Act.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-section (a) of this Section, a person undergoing a particular type of treatment in a treatment centre in accordance with this Act shall not be transferred to a different type of treatment centre without an order of the Drug Court.

(c) Where a person undergoing treatment in a treatment centre while in custody of that centre, has to be brought before the court, or has to be taken to a particular place at a particular time or has to be incarcerated at a particular place at a particular time for the purposes of an investigation or for public interest or to protect his own interests, it shall be the duty of the treatment centre in which he resides to arrange the same.

Residents of treatment
centres

- 97. (a) A person who is resident in a treatment centre pursuant to a Rehabilitation Order made under Section 67 of this Act, shall be deemed to be in lawful custody while he is resident at the centre.
- (b) A person shall be deemed to be in lawful custody in the following circumstances:
- (1) While he is being taken to the treatment centre under an order made by the Drug Court;
 - (2) While he is being taken to another treatment centre while he is in custody in a treatment centre;
 - (3) While he is being taken to and from a place that he is required to be taken under this Act;
 - (4) While he is temporarily resident in a place that is not a treatment centre for purposes of work that is being carried out in accordance with this Act.

Arrest warrant

- 98. (a) Where the Drug Court has reasonable grounds to believe that a person undergoing treatment pursuant to a Rehabilitation Order while not being resident in a treatment centre has failed to comply with the Rehabilitation Order, the Court may issue a warrant requiring the Maldives Police Service to bring the offender before the Court.
- (b) The Drug Court shall have the power to issue a warrant to incarcerate a person arrested under a warrant issued under sub-section (a) of this Section for a period not exceeding 30 (thirty) days while the Court determines whether or not to continue his treatment programme.
- (c) Rules relating to bail prescribed under any other Act shall not apply to an offender who is arrested on the authority of a warrant issued under sub-section (a) of this Section.

Application for overseas

- 99. (a) A person subject to a Rehabilitation Order under Section

treatment

67 of this Act may apply to the National Drug Agency for permission to be treated in an overseas treatment centre.

- (b) Where the National Drug Agency receives an application under sub-section (a) of this Section, the Agency shall apply to the Drug Court for leave authorising the person to travel abroad to be treated in an overseas treatment centre.
- (c) Where the Drug Court receives an application under sub-section (b) of this Section, the Court shall grant leave subject to the following conditions being met or subject to any further conditions determined by the Court being met in addition to meeting the following conditions.
 - (1) The overseas treatment centre that the applicant wishes to be treated in is a centre approved by the National Drug Agency;
 - (2) The treatment programme offered at the overseas treatment centre is a programme approved by the National Drug Agency;
 - (3) The overseas treatment centre is one that has entered into a memorandum of understanding with the National Drug Agency relating to inter-agency cooperation, exchange of information, and the establishment of a mandatory reporting mechanism between the centre and the Agency as regards treatment of the offender.
 - (4) The finances have been arranged or are available for the person to reside in the overseas treatment centre for the duration of the treatment programme.
 - (5) The person is not being prosecuted in another Court for a criminal offence;
 - (6) The person is not subject to a sentence for a criminal offence other than a sentence, the execution of which has been suspended by the Drug Court.
- (d) The National Drug Agency shall publish a list of overseas treatment centres that are approved by the Agency, and shall review the list at least every six months.

- (e) The National Drug Agency is required to furnish to the Drug Court, at such times to be determined by the Court, information on the degree of participation of a person granted leave under sub-section (c) in a treatment programme for the duration of his residency in the overseas treatment centre.
- (f) The Drug Court shall grant leave to a person to travel abroad for treatment in an overseas treatment centre under sub-section (c) after suspending the Rehabilitation Order made against him for the duration of such treatment. And the order will become effective upon the expiry of such period notwithstanding the person being abroad at the time.

Treatment of persons in prison

- 100. (a) Where a person who is not an eligible person or who does not satisfy the conditions for a prescribed treatment programme, is serving a sentence of imprisonment for an offence comprising the use of drugs, and where such a person is a drug dependent person who requires treatment for his drug dependency, the National Drug Agency shall, in collaboration with the prison authority, facilitate his treatment at the prison premises.
- (b) The National Drug Agency shall, in collaboration with the prison authority, facilitate the treatment in prison of persons who are sentenced to imprisonment under Section 69 (a) of this Act.

Treatment of persons held in remand

- 101. (a) Where Maldives Police Service is of the view that a person arrested for an offence comprising the use or peddling of drugs is a drug dependent person that requires treatment even while in police custody, he shall be remanded in a drug offender remand centre established under Section 47 of this Act instead of being remanded in a police custodial.
- (b) Where the Drug Court commits a person to be remanded under Section 62(d)(1) of this Act, he shall be remanded in a drug offender remand centre.
- (c) A person remanded under sub-sections (a) and (b) shall be deemed to be under police custody.

Register of Persons
Undergoing
Treatment

- 102. The National Drug Agency shall maintain a Register of Persons Undergoing Treatment in accordance with a treatment programme prescribed by the Drug Court, which shall contain the details and progress of such treatment programmes. The Drug Court and treatment centres shall regularly provide such information necessary for the Agency to maintain the Register in such manner determined by the Agency. The Agency shall also maintain records of persons who are re-admitted into a treatment programme after completion of a prescribed treatment programme.

- (c) any grants made by any person for the control of drug abuse.

Expenditure to which fund is applied to meet

- 171. The Fund established under Section 170 shall be applied to meet the expenditure incurred in connection with measures taken to combat drug trafficking, or to improve services relating to treatment of drug dependent persons, or to achieve any other purposes of this Act.

Governing board of the Fund

- 172. (a) The President shall, within 30 (thirty) days of the expiry of the period referred to in Section 170 of this Act, constitute a Governing Board consisting of 7 (seven) members to advise the National Drug Agency on the management and application of the Fund.
- (b) The regulations of the Governing Board referred to in sub-section (a) shall be issued by the Board in consultation with the Minister of Finance and Treasury.

Expenditure report of Fund

- 173. The Governing Board shall, before the end of February each year, cause to be published in the Government Gazette, a report giving an account of the activities financed under the Fund referred to in Section 170 of this Act, together with a statement of accounts received.

CHAPTER TWENTY SIX MISCELLANEOUS

Benefit of the law

- 174. (a) Unless otherwise stated in the Constitution or this Act, this Act shall come be applied in relation to an act that constitutes an offence within the meaning of this Act upon the coming into force of this Act.
- (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-section (a) of this Section, a person who is subject to a criminal investigation or court proceedings for an offence committed under any other Act prior to the coming into force of this Act, shall be entitled to any leniency or benefit that he would have been entitled to, had the offence been committed under this Act. Further, where there is a process that he must be subjected to had the offence been committed under this Act, and where any leniency or benefit is to be had from being subjected to such a process, he shall be entitled to the same.

- (c) Where an obligation or burden is imposed on a person upon the coming into force of this Act, he shall not be required to bear such obligation or burden where it relates to an act committed prior to the coming into force of this Act.

Plea bargaining

- 175. (a) If a person prosecuted for an offence constituting the use, peddling, dealing or trafficking of drugs agrees to provide previously undisclosed information relating to his offence, or information previously unavailable to the prosecution, as a witness for the state, and where the Prosecutor General believes that such information would be of use in directly facilitating enforcement measures undertaken by law enforcement officials to prevent offences drug use, peddling, dealing or trafficking, he may request the Court to reduce the sentence that would be prescribed under this Act upon conviction of such an offence, to one third of the sentence.

- (b) Where the Prosecutor General makes a request under sub-section (a), the court shall, upon conviction of the offender, reduce his sentence accordingly.

Protection of informants and witnesses

- 176. (a) No person who provides information relating to the commission of an offence under this Act to a state authority during the investigation process or evidence submission process in the prosecution of such offence shall be disclosed.

- (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-section (a), this Section does not prevent the identity of such person being revealed where it is proved that he had intentionally provided false information under sub-section (a).

- (c) Where any written document, book, paper or any other article submitted to a court proceeding contains the name of a person who has provided information relating to the commission of an offence under this Act or any information that may reveal the identity of such person, the court in which the proceeding is taking place shall, in order to protect the identity of the informant, be required to conceal or prevent from being disclosed, the part which contains such information.

(d) Where a threat is made against a person who is a witness for the prosecution in a proceeding relating to an offence under this Act, or against his property or a member of his family, or where there is reason to believe that such a threat is imminent, the testimony of such witness may be provided in any of the following ways without disclosing his identity:

(1) The witness testimony to be provided in a way that the name, address or any other information that may reveal his identity is not disclosed to the accused or his attorney, and to provide the testimony while being in a separate room or behind a screen that will prevent him from being seen by the defendant or his counsel and by distorting his voice so that his identity will not be revealed. Such testimony must be taken in the presence of the parties to the prosecution. And the accused shall have the right to cross-examine the witness except questions that may lead to the disclosure of the identity of the witness. Such testimony shall be admissible as oral evidence.

(2) Where either party wishes for a witness testimony to be given as provided in this Section, they may, prior to the commencement of proceedings, apply for leave from the court, and the court may grant such leave.

Imposition of multiple sentences

177. Where multiple sentences are imposed upon a person convicted an offence under this Act, and unless otherwise determined by the court executing the sentences, he shall serve his sentences concurrently. And the first such sentence to be enforced shall be the maximum of the sentences.

Conducting of test by foreign agencies

178. (a) This Act does not prevent agencies authorized to conduct tests under this Act from entering into memoranda of understanding with foreign countries as regards conducting such tests or to conduct tests in such country in accordance with such memorandum. However, such tests must be conducted in a way that does not limit any processes provided under this Act.

- (b) The results of any tests conducted in accordance with sub-section (a) shall be admissible as evidence.

Compensation

179. (a) Where damage is caused to property or person by any act done by a law enforcement official during the seizing of property or the searching of a building belonging to a person under this Act, there shall be no compensation for damage caused to such property. However, compensation shall be payable where such damage is caused by the negligence of the official or because of an act done by him in contravention of laws and regulations or with intention to cause harm.

- (b) The court shall determine the amount of any compensation payable under this Section.

Revision of the mandate of
